

GREATEST SIN OF PRESENT DAY IS INGRATITUDE

Rev. James L. Gardiner Delivers Last of Series at St. Paul's—Sermons in Other Churches.

Rev. P. T. Parsons of Lowell Heights, Chicago, delivered both sermons Sunday at the First Baptist church, in the absence of Rev. Charles A. Decker, who is enjoying his summer vacation. Rev. Mr. Parsons is a supply man for Baptist churches, and on the last two previous Sundays preached at the Quincy Avenue Baptist church.

Mr. V. C. Soares, assistant to Rev. Mr. Decker, has been ill at his room at the Y. M. C. A. since Friday, with acute indigestion. Mr. Soares will complete his work here by Aug. 1, when he will return to Chicago. Thomas A. Freeman, a layman of the church will take up the work after he leaves.

"The sin of ingratitude is the most popular sin the world," said Rev. James L. Gardiner, B. D., pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, Sunday evening, when he preached the last of four Sunday evening sermons on the general topic, "Four Vital Questions."

In speaking on the theme, "What is the most popular sin," he said: "There is not a man present but who is guilty of this sin every day. We are ungrateful to both God and man, and many times to man we hardly say 'thank you.'"

Sin of Ingratitude.

"I see the sin of ingratitude manifested in the homes, as I go about my duties, seeing husbands ungrateful to their wives and wives ungrateful to their husbands and children to their parents. I see the sin of ingratitude shown in the manner men treat Jesus Christ. In spite of the fact that He died to redeem them they never say thanks. May God save us from this sin and help us say with the poet:

"Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life and all."

Both the morning and evening services were well attended.

At the Grace M. E. church, Rev. F. K. Dougherty chose the story of Onesimus the slave of Philemon, as the subject for his morning sermon and brought out the lesson of the appeal of love. He said that Philemon was greatly angered when he learned that his servant, Onesimus, had taken money from his treasury.

"Paul's letter to Philemon evidenced the diplomacy of the apostle. His persuasives are echoes of Christ's persuasives to himself, for he had learned his methods from the Master and had himself experienced that gentle love was greater than commandment."

De described how the servant had fled from his master after taking the money, and of his suffering because of his sin, and how he became a Christian and returned to his master and dropping at his feet cries for forgiveness. Then Philemon said, "I do Ananias," brother for Christ's sake," and he did.

Lord's Apostles. Taking the subject "The Apostles of Our Lord" as his subject, Rev. Cecil Franklin said in his sermon at the Indiana Avenue Christian church in the morning, that the word apostle means ambassador and that Jesus said of his apostles that they were his ambassadors, representing him, saying, "As the Father sent me so I send I thou."

"The first qualification," he said, "for an apostle was that he had been the Lord for they were to testify of His resurrection. They were given certain duties to perform with certain powers. To despise these representatives of Christ is to bring the wrath of God down on us. How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation?"

Special music was given at both services. In nearly all the churches large crowds attended.

A band of 30 members of the Personal Workers' league went to Elkhart Sunday evening where services were conducted at the First M. E. church. The league had charge of the services, and as a result several converts came forward. The party left the city at 10 o'clock in the evening and returned on the last car over the C., S. B. & N. I.

HAS BEEN PASTOR OF CHURCH SEVEN YEARS

New Church Has Been Built Since

Rev. G. W. Henry Came to South Bend.

Rev. George W. Henry, pastor of the First Christian church, finishes his seven years as pastor of the church today, and this evening at 8 o'clock the members of the congregation will tender him a reception at the church parlors.

During the seven years Rev. Mr. Henry has been in charge of the church many additions, both as to property and congregation, have been made. At least 700 people have been added to the church roster since his coming here.

In these seven years the present church was erected by the congregation. It took the place of the old church which stood on the same site. Other improvements have been carried out and today the church is in much stronger financial condition than it was when Mr. Henry took charge.

Rid Your Children of Worms.

You can change fretful, ill-tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters, by ridding them of worms. Tossing, rolling, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intense thirst, pains in the stomach and bowels, feverishness and bad breath, are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Indian Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, expels the worms, regulates the bowels, restores your children to health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brislin, of Elgin, Ill., says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it." Guaranteed. All druggists or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. Adv.

SOME DOG! AND SUCH AN EAR FOR MUSIC THAT PUP HAS.

"BARON ROFTSTOFF" GREETIS HIS MASTER VIOLINIST MACMILLEN.

Special Correspondence.
COXIDE, Belgium, July 23.—Baron Roftstoff, his long muzzle tucked down between his slender forelegs, lay on the bench. At intervals he raised his head, pricked up his ears and listened. What were those strange sounds which the wind carried to his ears? The Baron growled, leaped to his feet and walked to a cottage a hundred yards away. Straight to the open window he trod. From within came the wail of a violin. The Baron pushed his long muzzle over the sill. "Woof! Woof!" he said. Francis Macmillen, American violinist, looked up. "Well, sir," he asked, "what can I do for you?" "Woof! Woof!" repeated the Baron.

Health and Beauty Answers

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

Ada: The unlovely condition of your skin is due to the powder and greasy cream you use. Make up and use this dainty lotion and your complexion will be the envy of your friends. Dissolve 4 ounces sprunax in either 1/2 pint hot water or witch hazel, and add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. This delightful lotion dries quickly after being applied and gives to the skin an exquisite tint and velvety smoothness. The sprunax lotion cannot be detected when on and will make rough, oily, "muddy" skins smooth and clear. Use it for freckles, tan and sunburn.

Myrtle: That unwelcome fuzz on your cheek will vanish after one application of a delicate paste, made by mixing enough delatone and water to cover the hairs not wanted. After it is on 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be smooth and hairless. This method is unfailing, but be sure to get delatone.

Margie: From what you say, I believe your weakness and languor are traceable to your anemic condition. Make up and use this old-fashioned cleanser and tonic and your health and strength will soon return. Dissolve 1 ounce karden in 1/2 pint alcohol (never use whisky), then add 1/2 cupful sugar and not water to make a quart and take of this 1 tablespoonful three times a day. This rids the blood of poisonous accumulations, builds up thin tissues and fortifies the body against disease. The karden tonic especially good for banishing pimples, blotches, "muddiness" and other complexion blemishes, and after a regular course of this treatment your skin will be clear and soft.

Lydia: You hardly need to consult an oculist. Try this simple home-remedy. In 1 pint clear water dissolve 1 ounce crystals, then put a few drops in each eye twice daily. This will reduce inflammation and take out the soreness. If after this is done, your vision still remains blurred, you of course will require glasses. The crystal eye-tonic is excellent for granulated eyelids and weak, watery eyes.

SLANG MADE THIS WOMAN REAL MAD

"I Should Worry" Gets on Her Nerves and She Immediately Swings Milk Bottle at Annoyer.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 28.—The irritating, maddening phrase, "I should worry," was on trial in Justice Werremeyer's court at Clayton, and witnesses had been heard, was convicted.

The jury decided that a person goaded into fury by it was justified in grabbing a milk bottle and using it on the person who said it. Mrs. Ella Callahan, 53 years old, of No. 6143 Plymouth av., was freed of an assault charge, after she had pleaded she was made desperate by frequent repetitions of the words.

Mrs. Callahan is a neighbor of Mrs. Josephine O'Connor. For several weeks the families have been at odds. July 3, Annie O'Connor, aged 14, caught the Callahan dog in her yard and gave it a beating.

That evening Mrs. Callahan and Mrs. O'Connor met. Mrs. O'Connor declares Mrs. Callahan hit her with a milk bottle and then dragged her around a while by the hair. She had

Mrs. Callahan arrested.

Mrs. Callahan said in court that while Annie was beating the dog she called out to her that the animal might bite her. She testified that the child shrugged her shoulders in a contemptuous manner and said "I should worry."

All that afternoon, according to Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. O'Connor and Annie kept calling out "I should worry" at her over the fence until the phrase was ringing in her ears. At this point Fred L. Kerth, former collector of St. Louis county, who was a member of the jury, asked Mrs. Callahan to define the meaning of "I should worry" and tell the jury why it worried her so.

"It is a deliberate slur," the witness declared. "It means 'I don't care what you say or think.' No respectable person would use it."

Joseph McAtee, attorney for Mrs. Callahan, defined the phrase as "a contemptuous term used to show disrespect."

George Barnett, representing the state at the hearing, then volunteered the definition as "an idle phrase, a good-natured sally, containing no malice."

The jurors then called on Annie O'Connor to define the phrase, which she admitted using in the argument with Mrs. Callahan.

"It is a playful remark, and is a meaningless popular saying of the day," she answered. Ten minutes later the jury returned a verdict acquitting Mrs. Callahan.

TO TAKE MOTOR TRIP.

L. J. Casbon and wife will leave Monday for Valparaiso and Chicago, where they will spend a week visiting relatives. They will make the trip in their automobile.

ST. LOUIS WAITERS FOR ANTI-TIP LAW

Ordinance Providing Fines of $10 to $50 is Passed by City Council.

ST. LOUIS, July 28.—An ordinance to end the tipping habit was passed unanimously Saturday by the city council. It now will go to the house of delegates, where it is expected that it will be speedily adopted, and, with the signature of the mayor, become a law.

The ordinance has the backing of the union waiters of St. Louis, who, at present, are striking in the principal hotels and restaurants. The waiters say that the tipping habit has prevented them from drawing fair wages.

The bill was introduced by Councilman Michael Arenas and provides for a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for each offense. Both the tipper and the recipient of tip are subject to fine, and the informer who causes the conviction is to receive half of the fine assessed.

Billy Watson furnished several vocal solos that featured the program presented at the band concert at Springbrook park Sunday evening. Large crowds gathered in both the afternoon and evening at the park, and in the afternoon in spite of the rain the balloon ascension took place.

Wednesday will be boys' day at the park, and on Friday the Negroes will celebrate Emancipation day.
